How to find us

Located in Sale, South Manchester, Cobra UK's Head Office is easily accessible by car, rail and air. Journey time by car from London is approximately 3½ hours.

From the South:

Leave the M6 at Junction 19 taking the A556 towards Manchester and Airport.

Then follow the A56 towards Manchester City Centre through Altrincham and into Sale (approx. 10 miles).

Crossgate House is on the A56 in the centre of Sale.

Once you see Sainsbury's on the right hand side, simply turn left at the traffic lights into Atkinson Road, and then immediately left into the Crossgate House car park.

From the North and East:

Leave the M60 at Junction 7 and take the A56 towards Sale and Altrincham.

After about ½ mile, move into the right hand lane ready to turn right immediately after the Volunteer Pub into Park Avenue.

Then take the first left into York Avenue, and then left into Atkinson Road.

The entrance into the Crossgate House car park is then immediately on your right.

Manchester Piccadilly is the nearest mainline railway station.

Take the Metrolink (tram) direction Altrincham from inside the station (every 12 mins), and disembark at Sale.

Turn left out of the station and cross the road, then turning right at the traffic lights into Tatton Road.

You will see Crossgate House directly across the road to your left.

Manchester International Airport is only 8 miles and a 15 minute taxi ride away, with frequent British Airways flights to London Heathrow and Gatwick, and a twice daily direct service with Flybe to Milan Malpensa, as well as many direct services to other international destinations.
